The selected interns will support the team in preparing and conducting internal and external analysis. They will present the results and transfer the acquired knowledge to senior team members and internal project managers. The ideal candidates will have a good understanding of global business strategies and be ready to quickly adapt to changing dynamics and situations.

Tasks

- Investigate the corporation's activities and digital models.
- Help document, design and maintain digital strategies.
- Use IT resources at an advanced level to analyse data.
- Investigate big corporations' activities and growth models.
- Transfer the acquired knowledge to stakeholders and project managers.
- Provide data-driven strategy and optimization recommendations in support of organization goals.

Personal Skills

Essential:

- Proven analytics background, and drive for data accuracy.
- High level of business acumen, maths ability and IT skills.
- Hands-on experience with Excel and other data analysis tools.
- Good organisation skills and the ability to work in teams.
- Adaptive to change and can respond quickly and positively to revised scope and direction of activities.
- "Can-do" attitude.

Desirable:

- Willingness to be part of a progressive group of like-minded individuals searching for new ideas and developing new business models.
- Have a track record of successful teamwork with ability to work cross functionally.
- Passion for entrepreneurial environment.

The Host Company

There is a significant opportunity to join a step out innovation and venture team within a major corporation, operating in the field of automotive and industrial lubricants.

The innoVentures team is looking for interns, who will be part of an innovative team, which has been running successfully for over four years building up several emerging businesses as well as an investment portfolio covering automotive and industrial sectors.
